PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS.

THE REMOVAL OF THE BRITISH CONSULS IN THE SOUTH.

In the House of Lords, April 5, Lord CLANRICARDE, in moving for correspondence relating to the removal of British Consuls from the Confederate States of America, described and defended the proceedings for which these officers had been dismissed by the Foreign Secretary. The Consuls were accredited to the Federal Government, and the charge against them, in one case, was forwarding, under an official certificate, letters to the Northern States containing bills of exchange for the payment of debts due in England; in another, that the Consul had been instrumental in shipping specie on board an English vessel-of-war, for transmission to England, to pay the dividends on a public debt. He contended that these acts were not illegal, as the state of war did not cancel private or public obligations.

Earl RUSSELL said—It is rather difficult to make out the exact object which my noble friend has in view; but I will detain your Lordships a short time by a few remarks on the various circumstances to which he has alluded. In the first place, he said it was not right to say that the Confederate Government had sent away our Consuls, nor that many British subjects had been compelled to serve in the Confederate armies. I can only speak of the facts reported to me, and as I thought quite notorious. There have been complaints over and over again from different parts of the Confederate States that British subjects were obliged to serve in their militia and armies. We have had to consult the law officers, who have said that it was not fair to make British subjects, not being American citizens, serve in the armies of either belligerent, without giving them time to leave the country if they thought fit. I have acted on that opinion, and it seems to me not only law, but fair and equitable. My noble friend may think they ought to be compelled; I believe they ought not to be. Then my noble friend enters into the question of the withdrawal of Mr. BUNCH's exequatur, which was taken away, I think, very unfairly by the United States Government, on the ground that he had communicated with the enemy. Then he enters into the case of Mr. MAGER, who sent specie in a British ship-of-war, and he blames Lord LYONS for what he did in that matter. I believe Lord LYONS has taken the utmost pains, in his most responsible position, to behave fairly and impartially between both parties. Permission was obtained from the American Government that British ships-of-war should be allowed from time to time to go to blockaded ports; but Lord LYONS thought it an abuse of the privilege that specie should be sent to a Confederate port in a British ship-of-war, inasmuch as such specie might afford means of carrying on war against a State friendly to Great Britain. He accordingly stated that opinion, and if he had not done so the American Government might have withdrawn the privilege, and I think there is nothing in the law of nations that would have deprived them of the power to do so. [Hear.] I thought that Lord LYONS was right; and I sent out an order that the Consul who had sent the specie should not be continued in his functions. [Hear.] But my noble friend gave a rather detailed account of the conduct of Mr. CRIDLAND. Now, while that gentleman was acting as Consul at Richmond, I believe he enjoyed the confidence and respect of every one for the manner in which he performed his duties. He was desired to go to Mobile not as Consul, but to act as consul—to defend and protect British property and interests. I do not certainly a very unjustifiable act on the part of our Consuls, or of any one acting for a British Consul, to tell British subjects that they were not to resist their enlistment in the Confederate army, but to desert their colors in the moment of action. I think that very improper advice on the part of a Consul; and I do not think there was any instruction given to our Consular agents which could justify any of them in giving that advice. I do not find either in the opinion of the law officers of the Crown, or in any directions that I gave myself anything that would justify that course; and if the Secretary of the Confederate States had written to this country to complain of that conduct, I should have thought it right to reprimand and even to dismiss the Consul who had acted in so improper a manner. Instead of that the President of the so-called Confederate Government sent away our Consuls, though these are the persons to whom British subjects would naturally have recourse, in order to obtain redress for grievances. The only remedy they would have when the Consuls were removed was that suggested by Mr. BENJAMIN—namely, that soldiers in the field might apply to the tribunals of the country. A man might easily write to his Consul to claim redress, but that a man marching about should go to a court of law—that was a thing which could not be done. I therefore thought that was a very harsh and unfriendly proceeding on the part of the Confederate Government. At the same time, it ought to be remembered, likewise, that the Confederate Government had good reason to complain of our Consul; and our Consul saying that he had been so instructed, the Confederate Government might at first have believed him. Therefore, I did not enter into any complaint or angry remonstrance; but I asked Mr. MASON whether, if Consular agents, or persons under any other name, were sent to the Confederate States, Intercourse might not be carried on and negotiations opened, by which we might be able to obtain redress where redress ought to be given, or have reasons stated for its refusal. My noble friend does not complain of that. There has no doubt been a delay in carrying that arrangement into effect. It was thought necessary to send a letter to Richmond to know whether such persons would be received; and the letter the Federal Government would not allow to be sent. But I think it is quite right of the British Government to endeavor to open communications with the so-called Confederate States, without recognizing them, yet, as being States of considerable extent, in which cruel war is carried on, and in which there is a considerable number of British subjects, I say there can be nothing wrong in endeavoring to enter into communication with those States. [Hear, hear.] My noble friend has addressed your Lordships on various other subjects. I desired Mr. CRAWFORD, when he arrived at Richmond, to call the attention of the Government to the intercepted correspondence, a correspondence which I believed at the time to be genuine, and which showed that a party in the country had been employed by the Confederate Government to procure means of carrying on war against a State in amity with us. My noble friend is aware that Her Majesty declared at the beginning of this war her determination to preserve a strict neutrality, and prohibited her subjects from taking part on one side or the other. I am sorry to say the injunction of Her Majesty has not been obeyed. I have thought it right on every occasion, when it appeared to me that there was ground of complaint against the United States, to remonstrate with the Federal Government. With regard to the document to which my noble friend alluded, it has been the subject of a great deal of inquiry. It was said to have been published in a New-York paper as genuine; but Mr. Seward states that, having made further inquiry, he finds it to have been altogether a forgery. [A laugh, and "Hear, hear."] It was supposed to have been issued by the Secretary of the Confederate Navy, but it was, in fact, an invention of some gentleman in New-York. Certainly, I should not think of making any complaint on that subject to the so-called Confederate Government. There was a question with regard to which my noble friend made inquiries before the holidays—I mean the case of the Saxon. That is before the courts, and the ship and cargo have been released. It is alleged that a British subject was murdered; and the American Government have ordered that a court-martial shall try the officer accused of the murder. With regard to the motion of my noble friend, I suppose he will not depart from the usual form and object to the introduction of the words "or extracts" after the word "copies," and also that he will not object to the insertion of the words "so-called" before "Government of the Confederate States." Otherwise it might seem as if the House recognized the Confederate States, although Her Majesty has not done so.

The Marquis of Clanricarde said he had no objection to the amendments proposed by his noble friend.

The motion as amended was then agreed to.

GARIBALDI'S VISIT.

GARIBALDI, accompanied by his two sons, arrived at Southampton on the Ripon on Sunday morning, April 3. He was received with great enthusiasm; multitudes flocked to the docks to welcome him. No formal reception was made on Monday. He made a public entry into the town from the Mayor's residence, and received an address from the Corporation. After it had been read, GARIBALDI then bent forward, and remained for some minutes bowing, in answer to the tumultuous applause with which he was greeted. He at last spoke a few words with evident deep feeling, but with so strong a foreign accent and symptoms of effort to overcome the difficulties of pronunciation, that his delivery was remarkably slow, though at all times clear and distinct. GARIBALDI afterward embarked for the Isle of Wight on a visit to Mr. SEELY, M. P. The Duke of Sutherland will entertain GARIBALDI on his arrival in London, which was to take place April 11.

A MOVEMENT TO OUST THE MINISTRY.

The Daily News says it is understood that measures have been taken, which will make the House of Commons very animated for the next few weeks, if Parliament should last so long. The Tory Opposition, it is said, is mustering its utmost strength for a combined and well-organized attack on the Government.

The Star says the story goes that immediately after the production of the budget notice will be given of a motion to test the strength of the Government. The Tory expectants profess themselves confident of success, and chuckle already over the fall of the Ministry. Several papers ascribe the projected party movement to French intrigue.

The Advertiser says that if it is successful, the new Ministry will be a Napoleonic Government.

The Times says: "It is with much regret we announce that the Duke of Newcastle has been compelled by ill-health to resign the seals of the Colonial Department.

Mr. CARDWELL succeeds the Duke of Newcastle as Secretary of State for the Colonies.

Lord CLARENDON, who first entered the Cabinet in 1840 as Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, will succeed Mr. CARDWELL as Chancellor of the Duchy."

THE ALEXANDRA CASE.

From the London Star, April 27.

The decision of the House of Lords on the Alexandra appeal case was given yesterday. The question at issue was whether the Barons of the Court of Exchequer had power to make rules giving the Crown a right of appeal in the case. The Lord Chancellor, Lord St. LEONARDS, Lord CHELMSFORD, and Lord KINGSDOWN yesterday delivered their opinion that the Court of Exchequer had no right to make such rules. Lord CRANWORTH and Lord WENSLEYDALE took the opposite view, that the court had the power to make the rules. The majority being against the Crown the appeal was dismissed with costs.

THE PAMPERO CASE.

From the Edinburgh Scotsman.

We understand that the case of the Pampero will not now go to jury trial, an arrangement having been made for its settlement. We believe that by the arrangement the owners have consented to a verdict being entered for the Crown, forfeiting the vessel on some one count of the information, to be selected by the owners; they making such explanatory statement on the subject as they may think desirable. It is provided, on the other hand, that the owners are to retain and trade with the vessel, but are not to sell it for two years except with the consent of the Crown, and that alterations are to be made in the structure of the vessel. We understand that the builders are no parties to the compromise, which provides for settling their claim and having it withdrawn from the proceedings.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE DANISH QUESTION.

PROGRESS OF MILITARY OPERATIONS.

A telegram from Hamburg, of April 2, says:

"It is said that the Austro-Prussian troops intended to turn the position of Duppel by crossing over to the Island of Alsen very shortly, by means of Austrian pontoons. Everything is said to be prepared for an important action."

The Hamburger Nachrichten announces that 6,000 Danes had beaten the Prussians near Veile, at the positions lately abandoned by the Austrians.

A telegram from Copenhagen of April 3 says:

"The Prussians opened a terrific cannonade this afternoon from various points in front of the Dybbol bastions. Sonderborg was shelled from Broagerland. The cannonade and bombardment continued all night."

A telegram from Sonderborg confirms the above, and adds:

"The enemy commenced bombarding the town without giving warning."

Another telegram from Copenhagen of April 3, says: "The bombardment of Dybbol was continued today. Sonderborg is burning in several places.

"The cannonade of the enemy is kept up by the same batteries as yesterday. Our outposts on the right of the Dybbol position were attacked several times during the night."

A telegram of April 4, says; "The bombardment of Sondorberg has ceased. Nearly a third part of the town is burnt down. Last night our outposts were frequently disturbed by the enemy, who, however, in each instance withdrew."

THE CONFERENCE.

All the Powers interested have agreed to the holding of a conference.

France will only ask the inhabitants of the Duchies to declare what Government they prefer, in the event of the greater part of the Powers abandoning treaties of 1851.

The King of Sweden will endeavor to obtain peace, but in the event of failure, says he must render assistance to Denmark against overpowering force.

Private letters assert that the resolution of Denmark remains unshaken, not to enter into negotiations on the Schleswig-Holstein question, unless they are conducted on the basis of the treaties of 1851 and 1852. Denmark sends her Foreign Minister to the conference.

THE MEXICAN QUESTION.

The Times says the question of the acceptance of the Mexican throne by MAXIMILIAN is doubtful.

Later news states that the difficulties about the acceptance of the Mexican crown by the Archduke MAXIMILIAN have been solved, by a compromise with the Emperor of Austria, and the Archduke will shortly proceed to Mexico.

The Courts of London, Rome, Vienna, Berlin, St. Petersburgh, Spain and France have agreed to recognize the Emperor of Mexico immediately on his accession.

ITALY.

The Pope has entirely recovered.

A telegram from Rome, of April 4, says:

This morning the Pope went to the Church of Santa Maria Sopnia Minerva, where he assisted in the religious ceremonies performed at the Feast of the Annunciation. His health was excellent. The streets through which he passed were thronged.

DEPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH.

Arrival of the Fulton at Hampton Roads.

Capture of the Blockade-Runner Alliance.

List of Wounded Union Soldiers in the Enemy's Hands.

HAMPTON ROADS, Saturday, April 16.

The transport Fulton arrived at Hampton Roads April 16, having left Port Royal April 14. The following communication from her obliging Purser, Mr. THOMAS MCMANUS, gives interesting details of news:

CAPTURE OF A BLOCKADE-RUNNER.

The Clyde built steamer Alliance, from Nassau, endeavoring to ascend the Savannah River, grounded in Calebogue Sound, near Dawfuskie Island, on Tuesday morning, the 12th inst. She was first discovered by the lookout on the gunboat South Carolina. Orders were immediately given to send boats and take possession of her. On boarding her, all her crew, amounting to thirty in number, including her Captain, were found to be asleep. Her passengers, six in number, escaped in one of the boats to the enemy's lines.

The Alliance had a large and valuable assorted cargo valued at seventeen (17) thousand pounds sterling. She is built of iron and is about seven hundred (700) tons burden, with double oscillating engines of 60-inch cylinders, feathering paddle-wheels, and is valued at about one hundred and twenty-five thousand (125,000) dollars. Navy tugs were sent to extricate her from the perilous position in which she is placed, and if the weather should remain fine there is no doubt but what they will succeed in saving the ship and cargo.

ARRIVAL OF COLORED TROOPS.

A large number of colored troops arrived here (Port Royal) from Annapolis, and others were expected.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The steamer Louisa Moore sailed from Hilton Head, S. C., on Wednesday evening, the 13th inst., at 7 o'clock P. M., with mails and passengers for New-York.

The steamship North Star, Capt. SEABURY, arrived at Port Royal on the 13th inst. Also the steamship Weybosset, BRAND, from New-York, arrived on the 11th inst.

The U. S. steam frigate Wabash, Capt. DECAMP, proceeded to her old station on outside blockading duty off Charleston, on the 12th inst.

PORT ROYAL, Wednesday, April 13.

HENRY W. WINKLEY, a private of Company I, Fourth New-Hampshire Volunteers, fell from the forestopmast yard and was killed; his body was sent on shore for interment. He was a native of Newburyport, Mass., aged 22 years.

OUR HILTON HEAD CORRESPONDENCE

Prisoners Held by the Rebels—Capture of a Valuable Prize.

HILTON HEAD, Wednesday, April 13, 1864.

Everything remains quiet at Jacksonville. The only important event which has happened recently was the sending of a flag of truce to Gen. HATCH by Gen. PATTON ANDERSON, commanding the enemy's forces in Florida. Gen. ANDERSON sent a letter to Gen. HATCH, in which he expresses a hope that the list of our wounded at the Olustee battle in the enemy's possession, which list he forwarded with the letter, would tend to relieve the friends and relatives of much anxiety. The following is a copy of the list:

THE WAR IN THE SOUTHWEST.

News from the Red River—Large Quantities of Cotton Captured—Our Troops Reported to have been Driven from the Big Black—Rebels Firing on Steamers—Defeat and Capture of Rebels in Kentucky.

FROM CAIRO.

CAIRO, Sunday, April 17.

The steamer Mina was fired into on Tuesday night near Fort Pillow by fifty rebels in Federal uniform, supposed to have been the rear guard of the enemy, who are withdrawing in a northern direction.

It is believed that FORREST has not yet removed his headquarters from Jackson, Tenn.

The steamer Irvan has arrived here from New-Orleans with 150 bales of cotton for St. Louis. Her officers report that the rebel force under Gen. WIRT ADAMS, drove our troops from the Big Black a week ago, and took several hundred prisoners.

The steamer Hope passed here to-day with a large cargo of groceries and 550 bales of cotton, for St. Louis. She was fired into by guerrillas when fifteen miles above Memphis. The fire was returned, dispersing the rebels.

The steamer Liberty also passed here to-day for Louisville, with 4111 bales of cotton.

The steamer Ike Hammett, from Alexandria, Red River, on the 2d instant, arrived here to-day, with four more guns from Fort de Russey; also, two barges, containing 800 bales of cotton, prizes to the navy.

Four thousand bales of cotton are reported to be up the Black and Yazoo Rivers.

The gunboats Avenger, Onachita, Chachiten and Lafayette have gone up these rivers to secure this cotton, and two other gunboats have been ordered to assist them, and ten gunboats are up the Red River. This accounts for but one gunboat being at Fort Pillow at the time the rebels attacked it.

The Red River is rising.

The steamer Golden Gate, from Memphis, for Fort Pillow, laden with boat stores and private freight, was taken possession of by guerrillas on the night of the 12th instant, at Bradley's Landing, fifteen miles above Memphis. The boat, passengers and crew were rifled of everything.

The steamer Clister was fired into near Augusta, on the White River, a few days ago, and one man was killed and three wounded.

All steamers approaching the shore above Duvall's are fired into.

A private letter, dated Greenville, Miss., April 12, states that the hospital steamer was recently sunk on shoals above Alexandria on the Red River, and also that the navy were capturing large quantities of cotton in that region.

FROM LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sunday, April 17.

On Thursday, Col. GALLUP, while falling back to get an advantageous position, attacked 1,000 rebels, killing and wounding 25, including a rebel Colonel, and capturing 50 rebels, 100 horses, and 200 saddles.

Near Selbyville the rebel advance ran into Col. TRUE's advance, which was going from West Liberty to Selbyville, and which captured six rebels and then pressed forward to join Col. GALLUP.

Forty citizens of Booneville whipped seventy-five of GRAY's guerrillas.

It is reported there are no rebels in Perry or Breathitt Counties. Whitesbury, in the interior of the latter county, has been evacuated by the rebel forces there, JACK MAY, their Colonel, having ordered them to reinforce the rebel force under Col. EDWARDS, near Piketon.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Gen. Gillmore to be Relieved from Command.

Passage of the National Bank Bill in the House.

The Total Circulation Limited to $300,000,000.

Introduction of Propositions for Taxation and Revenue.

Factious Opposition of the Democracy to Revenue Measures.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE N. Y. TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 18.

It is reported that Maj.-Gen. Q. A. GILLMORE will be immediately recalled from duty in front of Charleston, and ordered on service elsewhere. It is not unlikely, notwithstanding this change, that our iron-clads will be alongside Charleston wharf before the incoming Summer has gone out. Gen. HATCH is mentioned as the successor of Gen. GILLMORE in the Department of the South.

THE FORT PILLOW MASSACRE.

The Committee on the Conduct of the War, after consultation with the President and Secretary of War, to-day determined to send a sub-committee, composed of Senator WADE and Representative GOOCH, to Fort Pillow to inquire into all the facts relating to that affair. The committee will leave this evening for the scene of their labors and expect to be absent about two weeks.

THE NAVAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

The Ways and Means Committee to-day considered at length the Senate's amendments to the Naval Appropriation Bill. They have adopted most of the Senate's amendments, and will probably report it to the House to-morrow.

BOUNTY TO NINE-MONTHS' MEN.

The Senate Military Committee have reported against the House bill providing for the payment of twenty-five dollars bounty to nine-months' men.

PERSONAL.

Gen. PLEASANTON is still at St. Louis, awaiting orders. Gen. KILPATRICK left this evening for Memphis.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 18.

THE DRAFT.

In order to correct erroneous impressions, it is proper to state that the President's order, of March last, requires that the amounts of men raised by voluntary enlistments be made up to April 15, and the draft be made as soon thereafter as practicable. No authority is given for the assertion that it will take place on the 1st of May. There are more or less necessary and real delays connected with a proper adjustment of accounts with a view to a draft. But the reports of additional and unreal ones, to which currency has been given, serve only to increase the difficulties.

GEN. HURLBURT RELIEVED.

Maj.-Gen. C. C. WASHBURN, of Wisconsin, has been ordered to take command of the Department of West Tennessee, in place of Gen. HURLBURT, who has been relieved and ordered to report by letter to the Adjutant-General at Washington. Gen. WASHBURN left this city, to-day, for Memphis.

POSTAL COMMUNICATION WITH BRAZIL.

The bill which recently passed the House to establish postal communication between the United States and Brazil is likely to meet the approval of the Senate. No subsidies are intended, and the amount to be expended is not to exceed $150,000, and the service is to be thrown open to competition. The carefully collected facts and figures produced in Mr. ALLEY's speech on the subject, showing wherein, by our neglect, we have lost immense revenues, while Great Britain has largely benefited by her postal policy, viewed in a commercial connection, secured to the measure a greater support than was expected in the present condition of the country.

THE SESSIONS OF CONGRESS.

The resolution passed to-day for night sessions may be regarded as an evidence of the determination of the majority of the House to bring this Session of Congress to a close at the earliest practicable moment, perhaps about June 1. Some of the Senators, however, express the opinion that Congress will remain here until July.

EXPEDITING BUSINESS IN THE HOUSE.

There was a full attendance at the Union or Republican caucus, to-night, at the Capitol, the object being to arrange and expedite the business of the House. It was agreed to take up the Internal Tax Bill at noon to-

FOR SALE—THE HOME OF THE LATE A. J. Downing, Esq., on the bay at Newburgh. An elegant COUNTRY SEAT, with landscape and water view unsurpassed upon the Hudson. George W. Curtis, Esq., in his memoir of Mr. Downing, says of this place: "I have often passed a week there without wishing to go outside the gate, and entirely forgot there was any town near by." It contains six acres highly cultivated, in lawn and garden, with fountain, gate-house, trees, ornamental and fruit, in every variety. Mansion spacious, with tower, verandahs, gas, water, &c.; carriage, coachman's and ice houses; barns and heneries, graperies and greenhouse, filled with every variety. Build upon in collegiate Gothic style, and walks gravelled. It is a first-class residence, and highly praised by the experienced eye of Miss Frederika Bremer, in her letter to Mr. Downing's friend. Parties wishing to purchase the premises divided can do so, and have a residence that can be occupied the entire year. The drives in its vicinity are exceedingly picturesque, and amid scenes of great historical interest. The country seat and its surroundings have been made classic by eminent American and foreign criticism and revolutionary incident.

The American Cyclopedia says of it: "That Mr. Downing erected an elegant mansion, which, with its tastefully arranged grounds, afforded the first practical illustration of the builder's conception of an American rural home." The location commands grand and charming mountain and water views, unsurpassed in this State, embracing miles upon miles. Describing the premises, a distinguished American writer says: "The thicket seemed not to conceal, but to annihilate the town; so sequestered and satisfied was the guest of the garden that he was quite careless and curious of the world beyond."

The buildings upon the premises could not be replaced for $80,000, and never-failing water and all the modern improvements contribute to make it one of the most beautiful and desirable homes on the Hudson. The neighborhood is unexceptionable, and the premises very accessible. The Peekskill station on the Hudson River Railroad is about fifteen minutes' drive from the premises, and the boats ply regularly between Newburgh and New-York.

This is an exceedingly rare opportunity, as such desirable premises are not often for sale, this being the second time in about half a century.

Terms made easy. Apply to or address TIMOTHY CRONIN, Counselor-at Law, No. 161 Broadway.

A MOST BEAUTIFUL PLACE FOR SALE on the Hudson, within thirty miles of New-York and six minutes' walk from the railroad station. The grounds, comprising about seven acres, are high and handsomely diversified, abounding in fruit and shade of the choicest quality, with springs and running brooks, affording a prospect over land and water nowhere surpassed on the shores of the Hudson. There is a large and commodious mansion, green house, &c., with all necessary dependencies, and other buildings, and is a place to be desired—beautiful for situation, and every way fitted, by its location, its character and all its surroundings, for the residence of a gentleman of taste and refinement.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

By the arrival of the steamer Fulton at Fortress Monroe on Saturday, we have later advices from the Department of the South. She brings the intelligence of the capture by the gunboat South Carolina, of the rebel blockade-running steamer Alliance, in Callibogue Sound, Savannah River, where she had got aground. She is a fine Clyde-built steamer, with a cargo of assorted groceries, the value of which, with the steamer, was estimated at $200,000. The Captain and crew were captured asleep. Gen. PATTON ANDERSON, commanding the rebel forces in Florida, had sent to Gen. HATCH, commanding our forces at Jacksonville, a full list of our soldiers wounded at Olustee, and now in the hands of the enemy. The list will be found elsewhere.

The steamship Havana, from New-Orleans April 10, and Havana April 12, arrived at this port yesterday, but brings little news—her advices being only one day later. The convention had reached the fourth day of the session, but had yet transacted no important business.

From North Carolina we learn, by way of Newbern, that the rebels are experiencing great difficulty in enforcing their conscription in the western part of that State. Several rebel officers and soldiers have recently been hung for attempting to enforce the conscription. The Raleigh Confederate, in speaking of the prospects of the election of Hon. W. W. HOLDEN, (Conservative,) for Governor, says it "depends on the success of their armies. If they are successful, HOLDEN will be defeated; if they meet with a repulse, his election by a large majority is certain."

Some further particulars of the horrible massacre at Fort Pillow have been received. The atrocities committed by the rebels are almost beyond belief. An affidavit, made at Cairo by a wounded soldier, declares that the Quartermaster of the Thirteenth Tennessee Cavalry was, while living, nailed to a board by the rebels and thrown into the flames of a burning building at Fort Pillow.

A report comes from Cairo, brought by a steamer from the Lower Mississippi, to the effect that a week ago the rebels, under Gen. WIRT ADAMS, drove our forces from their position on the Big Black River, and took several hundred prisoners. The rumor is not very reliable. Four of our gunboats had gone up the Big Black and Yazoo, to capture cotton.

Since the attack on Fort Pillow, cases of steamers being fired into have been much more numerous. Several were fired into on Saturday and Sunday, between Memphis and the fort.

FROM EUROPE.

The steamship Glasgow, from Liverpool April 3, via Queenstown April 4, and the Saxonia, from Southampton April 6, arrived at this port yesterday. In the House of Commons on the 5th, Lord CLANRICARDE moved for the correspondence relating to the dismissal of British Consuls from Southern ports, when Earl RUSSELL, in reply, defended the action of Lord LYONS, and showed that the said Consuls had been dismissed for a good and sufficient reason—for using their official positions to aid the rebels. Mr. STANSFELD had resigned his position in the Government, as Junior Lord of the Treasury, because of the connection of his name with MAZZINI and the Greco conspiracy. GARIBALDI, with his two sons, arrived at Southampton on the 3d, and was received with great enthusiasm. He received an address from the corporation, to which he responded in very badly broken English. Afterward he embarked for the Isle of Wight on a visit to Mr. SEELY, M. P. He would enter London April 11 as the guest of the Duke of Sutherland. It was rumored in London that an attempt would soon be made to oust the Ministry, and proceedings in Parliament for the next few weeks would probably be very animated. The steamship Great Eastern had been taken up by the contractors, Messrs. GLASS, ELIOT & Co., to lay the Atlantic cable next year. The bombardment of Dybböl continued, and one-third of the town of Sonderborg had been burned. The latest dispatches from allied sources represent their forces as making gradual but certain advances. All the Powers that signed the treaty of 1852 had consented to send representatives to the conference, but no answer had been received from the Germanic Diet. The basis of the conference would be an effort to restore peace, but no armistice would take place. Rumors that MAXIMILLIAN'S acceptance of the Mexican throne were doubtful were again in circulation. It was reported that the Courts of London, Rome, Vienna, Berlin, St. Petersburgh, Spain and France have agreed to recognize the Emperor of Mexico immediately on his accession. The Pope's health had entirely recovered.

GENERAL NEWS.

The $973,100 worth of stock of the Soldiers' Bounty Fund, awarded by the Comptroller on Saturday, and noticed in the TIMES yesterday, was all at premium rates above 2½ ℔ cent., and the premiums net $30,607 75, or a fraction over 3 ℔ cent. The 2½ ℔ cent. premium bids were excluded from acceptance.

The Board of Aldermen had no quorum yesterday, and adjourned without day. In the Board of Councilmen the matter of the publication of the Corporation Manual was discussed. Mr. JAQUES objected that the Manual was altogether too costly and bulky; that there was a great deal of unnecessary matter printed, of interest only to the antiquarian; and that its cost last year was three times that of the State Manual. The resolution authorizing the printing of 9,000 copies was adopted, but subsequently reconsidered, and the matter referred to the Committee on Printing and Advertising.

In the Court of General Sessions yesterday, a Grand Jury was impanneled and Judge RUSSELL delivered a very able and learned charge to them. ROBERT C. HUTCHINGS, Esq., Assistant District Attorney, appeared to conduct the trial of cases on the part of the people. MICHAEL BARRY and THOMAS DORAN pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the fourth degree, and were remanded until Friday for sentence. CATHARINE COLEMAN pleaded guilty to the charge of receiving stolen goods, and she was remanded until Friday. The Court adjourned until this morning.

The examination in the case of JOHN W. HUNTER, charged with defrauding the Government, was again adjourned yesterday until Wednesday, at 3 o'clock, owing to the continued absence of Judge PIERREPONT, senior counsel for the accused.

At a meeting of the shareholders of the Fourth National Bank, yesterday, Ex-Mayor OPDYKE, and the Board of Directors, resigned.

The Associated Banks of this City have run so short of Greenbacks as, under the recent sales of Gold and Exchange by the Treasury, to produce a sudden and violent panic in the Money and Stock Markets. Greenbacks were yesterday at a premium over Certified Bank Checks, and sellers of Gold or Exchange made a difference of 1@1½ ℔ cent. The Stock circles were agitated almost beyond precedent. About noon the failure of Messrs. MORSE & Co., heavy speculators in Fort Wayne and other Railway and Mining Stocks, was announced. Other less important suspensions followed. Gold left off at 168½@170. The Railways went down 5 to 25 ℔ cent. on actual sales through the day.

The stringency in the money market yesterday effectually squelched speculative operations in Produce and Merchandise, and arrested even regular movements temporarily, especially at the Produce Exchange, where Flour declined 10c.@15c. ℔ bbl., Wheat 2c.@3c. ℔ bushel, Whisky 2c. ℔ gallon, Butter 2c. ℔ lb., and Hog products generally were cheaper, with a very moderate inquiry. Cotton, Groceries, Oils, Spices, Hides, Leather and Wool were less sought after, and were less buoyant. The freight market was quite dull.

With 3,300 cattle in the Forty-fourth-street yards, Monday, and 200 sold there Friday and Saturday, but credited to this week, trade opened moderately brisk, and it took very good droves to bring the prices of last week. The cattle are generally of superior quality, which really made the meat cheaper when sold at the quotations of Monday week. Butchers were shy, some of them declaring that their beef cost 18c. ℔ lb. last week, and none of them were willing to pay over 17c. now. Sheep are very scarce and have advanced more than ½c. ℔ lb.

Congress—The People—Taxation.

The reluctance to tax heavily which Congress has displayed ever since the war began, and, we regret to say, is still displaying, is very remarkable, and is fast becoming incomprehensible. The voice of the public, as expressed through the press, is now strongly in favor of the imposition of as heavy burdens as may be necessary to meet at least the larger portion of the public expenditure; but the indisposition of the House of Representatives to comply with this demand seems now fully as great as ever it was. The Tax Bill is postponed till the latter half of the session—is introduced slowly and heavily, and apparently with much groaning and moaning; and when ready for action, it is made to stand aside for that most unprofitable of all occupations, the discussion of declamatory resolutions. Moreover, the rapid depreciation of the currency, involving as it inevitably does irretrievable injury to the public credit, and threatening us with national bankruptcy—the calamity which we have all of us always most dreaded, which our enemies have steadily predicted, and on which they now most rely for our overthrow—though it sends a thrill of alarm and anxiety throughout the entire country, seems to produce no more impression on Congress than a railroad accident or a Copperhead riot.

It is very difficult to account for this horror of taxation on the part of the National Legislature, except by ascribing it to a very false notion of the state of public feeling. Congressmen evidently imagine that people have learned nothing from the events of the last three years, and that we are all still under the impression that we can pay the expenses of the war by means of loans and paper money alone. There could not, we are satisfied, be a greater mistake. It was perfectly proper and prudent for the Government at the outset of the war to rely mainly or even wholly on these two resources. The issue of as much inconvertible paper as would suffice to displace the gold and silver in circulation, is a perfectly legitimate financial expedient in a sudden and great emergency, and so is the borrowing of as much of the capital of the country as may not be otherwise employed. And with the ideas which were then prevalent in all quarters as to the probable duration of the war, there was nothing wonderful in the general desire that the Treasury Department should not resort to heavy taxation until these two sources of supply had been exhausted.

But there has since then a wonderful change come over the spirit of our dream. Everybody has now, no matter what his political opinions may be, a just estimate of the magnitude of the struggle in which we are engaged. And the depreciation of the currency, under the influence of over-issues of paper, has now been brought home to the minds of the masses in a way which no amount of politico-economical preaching would ever have done. There was not much use in preaching the necessity for taxation to a people who had never been taxed, and who had no practical acquaintance with the cost of a great war, as long as any other means of paying the bills remained unexhausted. But the most ignorant and stupid person in the community has received a sharp lesson, and is still daily receiving it, in the inconveniences of trying to carry on war without paying taxes. The most tremendous burdens ever imposed by any Government on any community would not equal, in the same length of time, the losses which all classes and conditions at the North have sustained during the last six months, owing to the depreciation of the currency, and the consequent rise of prices, and derangement of trade and industry. Everybody feels it, from the apple-dealer to the banker; everybody knows that it would be better for him to pay ten per cent. on his income, beside excise duties on everything produced or sold, than live the life of uncertainty and anxiety we are now leading; putting out of sight altogether the effect of the paper inflation on the progress of the war, and on our national credit.

Consequently we hold that the supposition that people are not ready for heavy and stringent taxation—that sooner than encounter it, they prefer going on as they now are, or that they do not understand the nature of the crisis through which they are passing,—is so notoriously untrue, that if it influences Congress in shrinking from the Tax Bill; they must be so ignorant of the feelings of their constituents as to be unfit to represent them; and if they are not influenced by it, their recent behavior indicates an indifference to the public interests so gross and shameless as to be very little, if anything, short of the treason the majority are so fond of denouncing. Not to provide for the wants of the Treasury at this moment, both by imposing taxes and paying them, is to be guilty of as wicked and mischievous connivance at the rebellion, as either serving in the ranks of its armies or giving information to its Generals. If anybody wants to know what "giving aid and comfort to the enemy" is, we cannot give him a better idea of it than by pointing to a member of Congress who now allows his mind to be occupied about anything but taxation.

A Word to the European Admirers of Southern Chivalry.

We commend the accounts of last Tuesday's massacre at Fort Pillow, now confirmed in its important features, to the attention of the enthusiastic defenders of the Rebel Confederacy in England and France. For some years, Mr. SPENCE, and his co-laborers in the Anglo-rebel Press, have been picturing to an admiring public the gallant and heroic chivalry of the South struggling for independence, and the slave bound by a thousand ties of affection and respect to his patriarchal master. The aristocratic class of England and the polished circles of France have been appealed to for sympathy with "the only aristocracy" on the Western Continent. The North has been painted as sordid, vulgar and low-born; the South as chivalrous and noble. The sympathies of a large part of the aristocracy of Great Britain are now with the South, in part because they believe that the Confederacy is an association of gentlemen, and the North a mob and a vulgar Democracy.

We commend to these admirers of the Southern system, the specimen just given of the chivalry and civilization of the new member they hope to introduce into the family of nations. A fort is taken after no very severe assault or long siege, where hot blood has not been aroused, and at once the conquerers proceed to a general butchery of the prisoners. Three hundred black soldiers and fifty-six white are murdered in cold blood. Other atrocities are reported, such as bayoneting the sick and wounded, shooting women and children, and burying alive a number of wounded black prisoners.

The sole pretence for this outbreak of cruelty, is the fact that slaves have been enlisted by our Government, and that these unhappy soldiers were mostly black.

There is nothing in this horrid burst of revenge which will much surprise the Northern public. We have long understood the civilization that springs from the plantation and the slave-pen. We well know the savage habits begotten by irresponsible power. The gilding and tinsel which covered the barbaric reality of Southern society, have long been rubbed off to Northern eyes. Since the butchery of Northern prisoners at Bull Run—after the nameless atrocities and petty cruelties inflicted on our helpless soldiers in Southern prisons—after the most savage massacre of Lawrence—with a thousand experiences of Southern civilization fresh in our memories—not the most rabid Pro-Slavery man in the North ventures any longer to talk of Southern honor or chivalry, or the humanity of slaveholders.

Years before the war, this journal, in a series of letters which have since become the authority as to the true condition of Southern society—under the name of Mr. OLMSTED—exposed the sham and pretence of Southern culture and refinement, and showed that power, without limits or responsibility, must beget cruelty and tyranny. Facts have only confirmed more terribly these observations. Every man now understands that the worst effect of Slavery is not on the blacks. The personal dishonor, treachery and cruelty shown and practiced by Southern rebels in this war, are the most conclusive arguments ever uttered against the system.

But, apparently, there are many in Europe who are yet beguiled by slaveholding sophistry. We would respectfully present to them this new exhibition of the civilization of the slave-pen. The murder of unarmed prisoners for their color, and the burying alive of the wounded, will be original and interesting exhibitions to Europe of Southern refinement. We congratulate the aristocratic friends of the Confederacy on their new companion, who comes with the slave-whip and bloody hands to join their polite circle. How pleasant must be the thought to the many defenders of the slaveholders' Confederacy in Europe, that this is the form of civilization they have been spending means and time and breath to found among the nations of the world.

On the Northern side we can proudly call attention to the fact that not a single public and legalized deed of cruelty has been committed, and no bloody acts of revenge by any number of individuals in our victories. Personal and individual cases of violence there may have been, here and there, but nothing more. We have erred on the side of civilization and humanity, if at all. The record of the South is known around the globe. And it is between these two forms of civilization that the contest is going on in the New World. The struggle is, which shall shape the destinies of this continent—the habits and morality and humanity begotten of Slavery and barbarism, or those which have sprung from Freedom and Christianity. And between these combatants the culture and wealth of England have, now for three years, in the main, stood neutral! We can only hope that such horrible occurrences as this of Fort Pillow will at least open the eyes of a few.

NEW COMMANDER FOR WEST TENNESSEE.—Maj.-Gen. C. C. WASHBURNE, lately on duty in the Department of the Gulf, has been appointed to the command of the Department of West Tennessee, in the stead of Gen. HURLBUT, who has been relieved and ordered to report by letter to the Adjutant-General at Washington. We trust and believe that this appointment will prove an excellent one. Gen. WASHBURNE has seen service in Tennessee before, and has an excellent repute both as a soldier and administrator. There is no secondary department which requires more eminent capacity and a more honorable character for its proper management than this. It is most tempting ground for the rebel Generals, both for such operations as those now being carried on by FORREST, and for larger movements such as have been threatened by Dr. POLK. Unless the rebels are driven entirely out of the department, they can give us great annoyance, and neutralize a very large body of our troops. Beside his important and difficult military duties, the Commander at Memphis has great labor of an administrative kind. In the first place, Tennessee is undergoing the process of political reorganization, which has been almost entirely baulked in the western section of the State by the everlasting irruptions of rebels. In the second place, Memphis is the seat and centre of the great speculative and cotton-trading operations on the Mississippi River, and a commander whose integrity is less than perfect is apt to become the tool of knaves. In the third place, the City of Memphis itself, which at the present time has a population of between thirty and forty thousand, is under military rule, and requires firm and just executive direction.

The havoc that FORREST'S gang is playing throughout the region of country between the Tennessee and Mississippi Rivers cannot be at all realized from the telegraphic accounts of his operations. But it is not merely during the last few weeks that it has suffered from rebel ravages. It has been in a condition of chronic and appalling suffering for two years. The rebels have had nearly everything their own way, except at our posts along the Mississippi River, which were guarded by Admiral PORTER'S gunboats.

If Gen. WASHBURNE shall succeed in remedying the dreadful state of affairs in his new department—if he can expel and keep out the rebel raiders and ravagers, restore order after anarchy, and at the same time repress the rapacity of speculative harpies, and save society from the total corruption which threatens it,—he will certainly have deserved well of his country.

BLUE MONDAY IN WALL-STREET.—Yesterday was an awfully "blue day" in Wall-street. The liberal subscriptions for the Government Ten-Forties, the heavy payments for duties at the Custom-house, the calling in of loans and the rapid contraction of the volume of circulating notes by the banks, all tended to increase the stringency in the money market and the panic in stocks and merchandise. At the various sessions of the Stock Boards, as well as in the open Street, stocks were thrown on the market unreservedly, and prices were depressed—lightly on Government securities, but most fearfully on nearly the whole list of "fancies." Principals were mercilessly sacrificed by their brokers, margins wiped out, contracts repudiated, abusive epithets lustily interchanged, and some lively pugilistic exercise indulged in, much to the entertainment of disinterested and patriotic spectators of "the slaughter of the innocents." At the close of the day's festivities lame ducks were a drug in the market, and the erstwhile much envied stock gamblers could find none so poor as to do them reverence. They have sowed the wind and have reaped the whirlwind.

CONCERT TO-NIGHT.—The grand vocal and instrumental concert to be given this evening at Irving Hall, for the benefit of the cause of Poland, deserves to be a success, as well on account of the eminence of the artists who are to take part in it, and the distinguished committee of ladies under whose patronage it is given, as of the charitable object it is intended to subserve. There are few programmes that can show a more powerful array of names than this, and we are quite sure that the public will give the grand concert the great success it merits.

APRIL NINETEENTH.—Miss ANNA DICKINSON will lecture this evening at the Cooper Institute on subjects suggested by the day, it being the anniversary of two historical events, viz.: The battle of Lexington, 1775, and the murder of Massachusetts soldiers in the streets of Baltimore in 1861.

THE METROPOLITAN FAIR.

Visit of the Public School Children—Commencement of the Third Week—Receipts, Incidents, &c,

Yesterday, the thirteenth day of the Fair, was a clear, bright day, and the buildings though very well filled, were not quite as crowded as was expected. The attendance, however, was good, and the receipts for sales satisfactory.

RECEIPTS.

The receipts yesterday were as follows:
Sales to 3 o'clock P. M.	$12,650 40
Admissions, Fourteenth-street	4,618 75
Admissions, Union-square	1,095 75
Donations	2,693 55
Total	$21,058 45

REPORTS FROM OTHER DEPARTMENTS.

Union-square gross receipts	$51,161 57
Restaurant gross receipts	49,500 06
Fine Department gross receipts	21,000 00
Indian Department gross receipts	2,800 00

THE SWORDS.

As the close of the fair approaches this excitement increases. Last night at the close of the fair the total number of votes cast at the Fourteenth-street building was 10,876, of which

McClellan had rec'd	5,560	Scattering	109
Grant	5,207	McClellan's maj.	353

One gentleman gave 62 for Gen. FREMONT, after that the highest vote cast by any one person was 50 for GRANT.

Court Calendar—This Day.

SUPREME COURT—Parts I. and II., adjourned until Wednesday. Part III.—Nos. 618, 620, 1225, 1665, 813, 1211, 1439, 800, 805, 1369, 1623, 617, 1119, 1571, 1227, 1617, 829, 1555, 273, 1537.

SUPERIOR COURT—Part I.—Nos. 3165, 4371, 3695, 3929, 3931, 3933, 3935, 3937, 3939, 3941, 3943, 3945, 3947, 3949, 3951. Part II.—Nos. 3438, 3370, 2598, 1088, 3332, 634, 2730, 3334, 1780, 3292, 2522, 3360, 3344, 3160.

COMMON PLEAS—TRIAL TERM.—Adjourned for the Term.

THE BALTIMORE FAIR.

A Speech from President Lincoln—The Fort Pillow Massacre—His Views on Retaliation.

BALTIMORE, Monday, April 18.

The inauguration exercises of the great fair, at the American Institute, to-night, were very imposing The display was exceedingly fine. The immense building was thronged. President LINCOLN made a speech.

Speaker COLFAX and Senator WILSON accompanied the President to Baltimore. The President's appearance in the hall was greeted with tremendous applause, which continued some moments. After the inaugural address, by Gov. BRADFORD, the President was loudly called for, and in response he proceed to make a brief address.

He referred to the great change that had taken place in Baltimore in the last three years. Truly, he said, the world moves. At the commencement of the war the soldiers of the Union could not pass through Baltimore unmolested; and now we have this large assemblage of people brought together to do them honor, and provide for their wants and make them comfortable. All honor to the brave patriots who had wrought the change, and to the noble women who aided them. When this war began scarcely one individual supposed it would have lasted till now. All thought it would have ended in some way in a much shorter time. Very few at that time thought the institution of Slavery would be very much effected by it; but these expectations were not realized, and here we are, [laughter,] and Slavery has been somewhat effected. [Great laughter.] So true is it, my friends, that man proposes and God disposes. The world, he said, had long been in want of a correct definition of the word Freedom. While all professed to advocate liberty, there was in the minds of many a very opposite view of what liberty was. With one man liberty implied to work for himself and do as he pleased with the proceeds of his labor. With others liberty meant to do as you pleased with other men and their labor. One of these two conflicting ideas would have to give way to the other. He thought from some occurrences, which had only lately taken place in Maryland, that her people were about to determine which of these views of freedom should control her destiny.

The President then passed on to refer to a matter which he said he supposed was just now deeply agitating the minds of the people all over the country. He alluded to the occurrence which was reported to have taken place at Fort Pillow, on the Mississippi River—the massacre of several hundred colored soldiers by the Confederates. Many supposed that the Government did not intend to do its duty in regard to the protection of these colored soldiers. He desired to say that all such were mistaken. When the question of employing colored men as soldiers was left to the Government, it rested very much with himself whether he should make soldiers of them or not. He pondered the matter carefully, and when he became convinced that it was a duty to so employ them, he did not hesitate to do so. He stood before the American people responsible for the act—responsible before the Christian world. Responsible for it he should stand in the eye of the historian. Responsible for it he stood before God, and he did not shrink from the decision he had made, for he believed it was right. But when the Government determined to make soldiers of these colored people, he thought it only just that they should have the same protection as the white soldier; [applause:] and he hesitated not to declare that the Government would so protect them to the utmost of its power. Whenever a clear, authenticated case should be made out, retribution would follow. It had hitherto been difficult to ascertain with that certainty which should govern a decision in a matter so serious. But in the affair at Fort Pillow he thought they were likely to find a clear case. The Government had no direct evidence to confirm the reports in existence relative to the massacre. But he himself feared that the facts as related were true. When the Government does know the facts from official sources, and they are substantiated the reports, retribution will be surely given. [Applause.] But how should that retribution be administered, was a question still to be settled. Would it be right to take the life of prisoners in Washington, in Fort Delaware or elsewhere, in retaliation for acts in which they had not snared? Would it be right to take the prisoners captured, say at Vicksburgh, and shoot him, for acts of which he was not guilty, and which it will probably be found were the ordering of only a few individuals, or possibly of only one man.

The President reiterated that the Government would not fail to visit retribution when the facts were clearly proven.

Throughout his remarks were warmly applauded, especially his enunciation of a determination to visit retribution for the barbarous deeds of the rebels.

THE CHENANGO CALAMITY.

Burial of the Victims Yesterday—Imposing Masonic Ceremonies.

The funeral of the unclaimed victims by the disaster on board the United States gunboat Chenango, took place at the Marine Hospital yesterday, in presence of a large concourse, principally members of the Masonic fraternity, some of the friends of deceased, and the officers and crew of the ill-fated vessel.

The names of those interred in the Hospital burying-ground are as follows: George Wilson, seaman; Mitchel Redy, coal-heaver; Wheeler Sherman, ordinary seaman; Archibald Fleming, second-class fireman; Samuel Randall, seaman; Charles Wild seaman (coxswain;) Wm. Bone, second-class fireman; Wm. M. Weir, seaman (quarter-gunner.)

The bodies were inclosed in plain coffins, and borne singly to the burying ground, where a large grave had been prepared, into which the dead were placed side by side. The remains of Mr. WEIR were inclosed in a handsome rosewood coffin, provided by his friends, which was placed in the chapel of the hospital, where the funeral service took place. The Rev. Dr. CHARLES S. STEWART, Chaplain of the Hospital, assisted by Rev. Mr. TUMSDEN, of St. Paul's Church, Williamsburgh, officiated. Mr. STEWART made a brief address from the text, "The Lesson for the Hour," in which he alluded in feeling terms to the calamity by which so many were called to their last account, and advised his hearers that in view of the uncertainty of life they should always be prepared to meet their God. Mr. TUMSDEN made a prayer, and the coffin, covered with the naval ensign, on which were the caps of the other seven victims, was borne on the shoulders of six of the sailors of the Chenango to the front of the hospital, where the procession was formed in the following order:

Navy-yard Band.
Coffin borne by six sailors, and twelve others acting as pall-bears on either side.
Detachment of twenty seamen.
Guard of Marines.

Officers of the Chenango as follows:

Captain, T. SCOTT FILLEBROWN; Acting Ensigns, Layton, Adams and Crossman; Master's Mates, Jaschke and Goodman; Captain's Clerk, Belknap; Paymaster's Clerk, Stevens; Acting Assistant Surgeon, Goodhue.

Civilians, Freemasons and others.

They proceeded to Flushing-avenue, and thence to the rear of the hospital grounds, where the cemetery is located, and the coffin was placed alongside of the others.

The funeral of Second Assistant Engineer MURRAY took place on the conclusion of the other ceremonies, and was conducted by the members of Fortitude Lodge No. 19 of Free and Accepted Masons, under the marshalship of Brothers CHARLES L. KIRBY and THOMAS CRAIG. The body was conveyed to the Green, on the easterly side of the hospital, where the usual masonic ceremonies were performed by Worshipful Master TAYLOR, after which it was placed in a hearse, and the procession, headed by the North Carolina Band, marched through Flushing-avenue, Navy, Sands and Fulton streets to the ferry. Mr. MURRAY belonged to Baltimore, and his remains will be interred there. Worshipful Master TAYLOR, Junior Warden SETH SHIRLEY, and Master JOHN J. WHITE, accompanied the body to the late home of the deceased.

The bodies of the following have been removed by relatives and friends:

J. A. Cahill, First Assistant-Engineer, acting Chief; Albert Murray, Second Assistant-Engineer; Frank P. Root, acting Second Assistant-Engineer, (taken in charge by Hoboken Lodge of Freemasons, and buried in the Cemetery of the Evergreens;) Harry Livingston, coal heaver; Bernard Boyle, first-class firemen; John M. Smith, first-class boy; Joseph Lyons, seaman, (ship's cook:) Martin Michil, landsman, (Captain's boy;) John Ruddy, landsman; Joseph A. McCumby, Engineer's yeoman; John Murphy, fireman; John Maher, coal heaver; James Smith, seaman, (gunner's mate.)

The body of Acting Third Engineer JOHN WHITE, is still lying in the vault awaiting the arrival of friends from Portland, Maine.

One more victim died yesterday, named EUGENE LEARY, ordinary seaman. This makes a total of 23 deaths thus far.

The Coroner's investigation into the circumstances attending the disaster on board the Chenango will be commenced in the Governor's room, City Hall, at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

of New-York, Amos Myers, Morton, O'Neill of Pennsylvania, Orth, Patterson, Perham, Price, Randall of Kentucky, Rice of Maine, Rollins of New-Hampshire, Shannon, Sloan, Smith, Stevens, Thayer, Tracy, Upson, Van Valkenburg, Washburne of Illinois, Washburne of Massachusetts, Webster, Williams, Wilder, Wilson, Windom, Woodbridge—78.

NAYS—Messrs. James C. Allen, William J. White, Joseph W. White, Winfield, Fernando Wood, Yeaman—83.

INCREASE OF TARIFF DUTIES.

Mr. STEVENS, of Pennsylvania, (Union,) offered a joint resolution that from and after its passage, until July 1, 1864, all the duties and imposts on imported goods, and wares, and merchandise, now provided for by law, be increased by the increase of fifty per centum, and that upon all goods now imported free and exempt from duty there shall be paid ten per centum ad valorem.

Mr. JAMES C. ALLEN, of Illinois, (Dem.,) objected to the resolution.

Mr. STEVENS moved a suspension of the rule in order to consider the subject; but the question was decided in the negative, the vote being 80 yeas and 45 nays, and the motion requiring a two-thirds vote to carry it.

THE TAX BILL.

The Internal Tax Bill was made the order of the day for to-morrow.

THE MONTANO BILL.

On motion of Mr. WALLACE, of Idaho, (Union,) the House took up the message from the Senate which declined to agree to a Committee of Conference on the Montano Territorial Bill on the terms proposed by the House, viz.: That the committee be instructed not to agree to any proposition which will allow any other than white men to vote.

On motion of Mr. WALLACE, the House, by a vote of 69 against 55, insisted on its disagreement, and asked for a free committee of conference.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT AT INCREASED TAXATION.

Mr. STEVENS again offered a resolution to increase foreign duties fifty per centum, and tax articles now free ten per centum.

The House refused to suspend the rules, the vote being 72 against 38, not the two-thirds required by the rules.

Mr. MORRILL, of Vermont, (Union,) offered a resolution proposing that until July 1 the foreign duties be increased 25 per centum, and articles now free pay 5 per centum.

He moved a suspension of the rules, but no quorum voted. The vote stood 80 yeas against 4 nays, viz.: Messrs. CLAY, Eldridge, Law, Noble.

Mr. MORRILL said the purpose was distinctly manifested in the House not to make provision for carrying on the Government. What he said in addition was lost in the confusion and loud and repeated cries of order from the Opposition side.

On his motion there was a call of the House; but before it was completed an adjournment took place at half-past five o'clock.

Meeting of the Shareholders of the Fourth National Bank.

RESIGNATION OF EX-MAYOR OPDYKE AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

An adjourned meeting of the Shareholders of the Fourth National Bank was held yesterday afternoon in the main room of the banking-house. The attendance was large, and the business transacted of considerable importance. At the last meeting of the shareholders, held on the 14th instant, it was resolved that the Directors be requested to resign. Yesterday six of them made a proposition to the remaining three, namely, Messrs. GEORGE OPDYKE, ROBERT TAYLOR, and R. D. LATHROP, that if they would resign in accordance with the expressed wish of the shareholders, they, the six gentlemen making the proposition, would also resign. For a time the debate ran high, members taking ground for and against the proposed resignation of the Directors. Several resolutions were passed, showing that the majority of the shareholders present were in favor of their resignation. Mr. OPDYKE having frequently expressed himself as not only entirely willing, but anxious, stated that he had declined doing so only for the purpose of getting an expression of the majority of the stockholders concerning the propriety of his resigning. After the subject had been fully discussed, Mr. OPDYKE arose and stated that he, for himself and on behalf of Messrs. LATHROP and TAYLOR, respectfully tendered their resignations.

This step, of course, resulted in a general resignation

The Home Insurance Company.

That any insurance corporation should possess a capital of One Million Dollars is in itself an astonishing fact, so greatly does this sum exceed the capital ordinarily employed. But when such a corporation increases its capital at one bound from one to Two Millions, it simply astonishes the observer, and makes him more than ever inclined to inquire into the grounds and the methods of such prosperity. The secret of this remarkable success consists in the fact that the officers of the Home determined at the outset to make their company the foremost undertaking in the nation—to make it known, and trusted, and esteemed, and admired everywhere. And they have faithfully labored for the attainment of this end. They increased their capital from $500,000 to $1,000,000, and they found that the million capital would pay, and now they have increased it to two millions! When we state that during the year 1863 the Home received in premiums the sum of $1,286,000; that the dividends declared on its capital stock of $1,000,000 amounted to $100,000; that it has a gross surplus of $1,210,487 00, the intelligent reader perceives at once that its Directors were wise in trusting to the principle of doing business on a large and constantly increasing capital. The officers were unanimous for the increase; and experience demonstrates that they were right, and that the attributes of success reside in a large stock capital, when well managed!

The prosperity of the Home is not alone attributable to its large capital. The skill, fidelity, assiduous attention, and experience of its officers have largely contributed to the result now so brilliantly evident. The able report of President Martin testifies to his talents. He needs no commendation from us. There is, in that document, experience the most ample and thorough, as to the character and the history of Fire Insurance in this City, ripe judgment, dignity, taste—all the tokens of eminent capacity for an eminent position. Nor is the President destitute of worthy co-workers. Mr. Willmarth, the Vice President of the Home, is an officer of great ability, and extensive and minute knowledge of the insurance business. As such, indeed, he is thoroughly known and highly appreciated by the entire Insurance fraternity. So, too, is Mr. McGee, the Secretary, for many years an underwriter, and especially well versed in the details of the business in the West and throughout the "unpaved districts." It would be hard to find a more indefatigable worker. This latter remark applies with equal force to Mr. Beald, the Company's General Agent and Adjuster, who has no superior in his peculiar and important department.

Moreover, the Home has strengthened itself in public confidence by its prompt payment of losses, and its avoidance of litigation. It has had very few suits at law, and has been uniformly successful in all of them. At the outset—the Home being the first New-York company to establish agencies throughout the country—it was naturally regarded with some distrust. But all distrust has long since vanished, under the warm sunshine and trust-inspiring influence of its splendid success. A score or more of new companies have sprung up, following in its footsteps—though a long way behind—and without in the least embarrassing the strong current of its prosperity. It has probably, with one exception, a larger list of agents than any company in the world; yet it has suffered very little from the remissness or dishonesty of its agents. Indeed, its entire losses from this source have been but about one-fifth of one per cent. of its premiums received.

The existence, in the Metropolis of America, of such a corporation as the Home, is a National honor, and should be a source of pride and pleasure to all who appreciate the worth of solid, dignified, beneficent institutions. We honor it, therefore, most heartily—for its wisdom, its liberality, its energy and its success in a great and worthy work.—Insurance Monitor.

Dreamthorp, Alexander Smith's volume of essays, which had a remarkable success at its first appearance in England, has been republished in Boston, in very handsome style, by J. E. Tilton & Co. It is selling rapidly. The same have issued a new edition of Neighbor Jackwood, by J. T. Trowbridge, whose new novel, entitled Cudjo's Cave, is a great success, thirteen thousand copies having been sold in six days.—New-York Evening Post.

The natural gardens of the Tropics few can visit. The valleys where the Cereus Grandiflora sends up from its waxen leaves the richest and ourest of floral odors, not one in ten thousand who read these lines will ever see. But all can enjoy the luxurious fragrance of that sweetest and most beautiful of earth's flowers, in Phalon & Son's Extract of the "Night Blooming Cereus," which is surcharged with its exquisite perfume.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A Thing of Beauty is a Joy Forever.—The living breath of the loveliest flower that blossoms in the garland of nature, and wafts its sweet perfume on every breeze, has its exact counterpart in the breaths of all who use that unequaled and justly popular Dentifrice, Fragrant SOZODONT. It purifies and sweetens the breath, cleanses, beautifies and preserves the Teeth, hardens the Gums, and gives them that roseate cast so much coveted. Most delicious, convenient, efficacious and beneficial preparation for the toilet ever given to the public.

Sold by Druggists everywhere, at 75 cents per bottle.

D. Barnum's "Self-sewer" for all Sewing-machines.

The Scientific American, referring to it at the fair, says: "It is really a useful and novel instrument. It guides the work itself," &c. It preserves the eyes, avoids bending, no basting. "No machine is complete without it." Price $1 50, with directions. Sent by mail free. Donated to, and for sale at the fair. Fourteenth-street, in the sewing-machine room, and at the inventor's head-quarters, WILCOX & GIBB'S sewing-machine office' No. 508 Broadway, New-York.

Are You Disturbed at Night?

and broken of rest, by a child suffering and crying with the pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the little sufferer immediately. It cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and is perfectly safe in all cases. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

A costive habit of body will eventually undermine the health, and violent purgatives afford only temporary relief; but Dr. JAYNE'S SANATIVE PILLS, taken as directed, will soon remove it and all biliousness, and effectually cure Disordered Stomach, Liver Complaint and Sick Headache. Sold by KITCHEN, TYLER & CO., No. 141 Chambers and No. 1 Hudson-st., and by druggists generally.

Sterling's Ambrosia.—In consequence of the very great increase in the demand for Sterling's Ambrosia—which no lady who has once tested it, and proved it effects on her hair, would willingly be without as an article of the first importance in the mysteries of the toilet—the proprietor has been necessitated, feeling that he had more on his hands than he could possibly attend to, to dispose of one-half of his interest to Mr. Joseph H. Swift, for, we have been given to understand, the sum of fifty thousand dollars. The new co-proprietor of the Ambrosia is a gentleman of fine business experience, and will, in conjunction with the efforts of Dr. Sterling, make the preparation even more popular, if that be possible, than it is now. We wish the new firm all the success which their energetic habits and sterling merits of the Ambrosia justly command.—Sunday Dispatch.

ROMAINE'S CRIMEAN BITTERS.

This invaluable preparation was first used, in a modified form, in French army hospitals during the late Crimean war, (hence its name,) when its efficacy was fully demonstrated, not only as a preventive of several diseases incident to camp life, but as an efficient Tonic and Alterative; and, notwithstanding testimonials of an undoubted character were furnished us that it had been subjected to severe tests, and to a considerable degree in private practice also, the proprietors deemed it prudent, before its general introduction to the American public, to test it by the same ordeals here as those to which it had been subjected abroad. Previous to this, however, it was submitted for examination, as well as recombination, to two of our most distinguished analytical chemists, viz: Dr. James R. Chilton and Julius G. Pohle, both long and well-known residents of New-York, whose joint certificate is annexed, which, at a glance, will assure the most sceptical of its great medicinal virtues.

This certificate is of more than ordinary significance, from the fact that the late Dr. Chilton was a graduate many years since of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, then in Barclay-st., New-York, practiced medicine for a brief time, after which gave his attention almost exclusively to analytical chemistry, and was a member of the New-York State Medical Society up to the time of his decease. Dr. Pohle is of German birth, of large attainments in general science, and well known in this City for his skill in chemical analysis.

New-York, Feb. 14, 1863.

From a knowledge of the ingredients and their proportions entering into the composition known as "Romaine's Crimean Bitters," we are enabled to speak of it in terms of high commendation. Peruvian bark being one of its principal constituents, together with herbs, roots and extracts having decidedly medicinal properties, we have no hesitation in recommending it to physicians and the public generally as an invigorating tonic, intended to stimulate the digestive organs.

From its alterative properties it is calculated to prevent as well as cure by its daily use, in moderate quantities, constipation, fever and ague, mild forms of neuralgia and rheumatism. It is an antidote to the effects produced by change of water and diet, correcting diarrhœa, curing dyspepsia, colic, sick and nervous headache, nausea, sea sickness. It is expressly adapted to females of delicate constitutions, and the infirmities of age.

This preparation is composed exclusively of vegetable materials, containing no metallic or mineral substances whatever. Its taste is aromatic, warming and acceptable to the palate and stomach.

JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D.
JULIUS G. POHLE, M. D.

To-morrow all begin the publication of numerous testimonials from Surgeons of United States Army, and others of the highest respectability and social position, establishing the fact that CRIMEAN BITTERS are the most remarkable combination of medicinal ingredients ever offered to the public. This assertion is founded solely on testimonials verbal and written, and after a year's trial in various parts of the world.

U. S. 10-40 BONDS.

These Bonds are issued under the Act of Congress of March 8, 1864, which provides that in lieu of so much of the loan authorized by the Act of March 3, 1863, to which this is supplementary, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to borrow, from time to time, on the credit of the United States, not exceeding TWO HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS during the current fiscal year, and to prepare and issue thereior Coupon and Registered Bonds of the United States; and all Bonds issued under this Act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any State or municipal authority. Subscriptions to these Bonds are received in United States notes or notes of National Banks. They are TO BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually, and on all other Bonds semi-annually.

The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year. The semi-annual Coupons are payable at those dates, and the annual Coupons on the fifty and one hundred dollar bonds are payable on the 1st of March.

Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the Books of the United States Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses.

Registered bonds will be issued of the denominations of Fifty Dollars, ($50,) One Hundred Dollars, ($100,) Five Hundred Dollars, ($500,) One Thousand Dollars, ($1,000,) Five Thousand Dollars, ($5,000,) and Ten Thousand Dollars, ($10,000;) and Coupon Bonds of the denominations of Fifty Dollars, ($50,) One Hundred Dollars, ($100,) Five Hundred Dollars, ($500,) and One Thousand Dollars, ($1,000.)

Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accrued interest in coin—(or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium,) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit.

As these Bonds are exempt from municipal or State taxation, their value is increased from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay over eight per cent. interest in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of United States Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate communities only, is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is holden to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

The fact that all duties on imports are payable in specie furnishes a fund for like payment of interest on all Government Bonds largely in excess of the wants of the treasury for this purpose.

Upon the receipt of subscriptions a certificate of deposit therefor, in duplicate, will be issued, the original of which will be forwarded by the subscriber to the Secretary of the Treasury, at Washington, with a letter stating the kind (registered or coupon) and the denominations of bonds required.

Upon the receipt of the original certificates at the Treasury Department, the bonds subscribed for will be transmitted to the subscribers respectively.

Subscribtions will be received by the Treasurer of the United States at Washington, and the Assistant Treasurers at New-York, Boston and Philadelphia, and by the

THE ONLY KNOWN REMEDY FOR DIABETES.

STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES
AFTER URINATING.
IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER,
INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS,
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER.
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips: A teaspoonful a day of the Constitution Water will relieve you like magic.

PHYSICIANS
have long since given up the use of buchu, cubebs and juniper in the treatment of these diseases, and only use them for the want of a better remedy.
CONSTITUTION WATER has proved itself equal to the task that has devolved upon it.

DIURETICS
irritate and drench the kidneys, and by constant use soon lead to chronic degeneration and confirmed disease.

We present the Constitution Water to the public with the conviction that it has no equal in relieving the class of diseases for which it has been found so eminently successful for curing: and we trust that we shall be rewarded for our efforts in placing so valuable a remedy in a form to meet the requirements of patient and physician.

IN DYSMENORRHŒA, OR PAINFUL MENSTRUATION, AND MENORRHAGIA, OR PROFUSE FLOWING,
Both diseases arising from a faulty secretion of the menstrual fluid—in one case being too little, and accompanied by severe pain, and the other a too profuse secretion, which will be speedily cured by the Constitution Water.

That disease known as FALLING OF THE WOMB, which is the result of a relaxation of the ligaments of that organ, and is known by a sense of heaviness and dragging pains in the back and sides, and at times accompanied by sharp, lancinating or shooting pains through the parts, will, in all cases, be removed by the medicine.

There is another class of symptoms arising from IRRITATION OF THE WOMB, which physicians call Nervousness, which word covers up much ignorance, and in nine cases out of ten the doctor does not really know whether the symptoms are the disease or the disease the symptoms. We can only enumerate them here. I speak more particularly of Cold Feet, Palpitation of the Heart, Imperfect Memory, Wakefulness Flashes of Heat, Languor, Lassitude and Dimness of Vision.

SUPPRESSED MENSTRUATION,
Which, in the unmarried female, is a constant recurring disease, and through neglect the seeds of more grave and dangerous maladies are the result; and as month after month passes without an effort being made to assist nature, the suppression becomes chronic, the patient gradually losses her appetite, the bowels are constipated, night sweats come on, and consumption finally ends her career.

LIVER COMPLAINT.

In this climate a vast number of persons are more or less affected with disorders of the liver, arising from inflammation or obstruction of that organ. The common symptoms of liver complaint are a dull pain or aching in the right side, particularly on pressure—some difficulty of breathing—yellow furred tongue, loss of appetite, nausea, vomiting, disorder of the stomach and bowels, sick headache, costiveness at some times and diarrhœa at others, slight fevers toward evening, night sweats, &c. Some of the appearances of liver complaint are so much like those of pulmonary consumption that one of these disorders is often mistaken for the other. It is a common mistake among physicians to suppose that liver complaint can be cured only by calomel; but this remedy is generally worse than the disease—for they who once submit to "a course of mercury," may assure themselves that they will never enjoy perfect health afterward. Dr. J. H. Schenck's Mandrake Pills, a purely vegetable compound, answer every purpose for which calomel is prescribed, and they cannot possibly do any injury. Their action on the liver is so wonderful that some "regular physicians" who have witnessed the cures performed by them, erroneously reported that they must contain calomel. To contradict this slander, Dr. Schenck made oath before an Alderman in Philadelphia, that the Mandrake Pills contain no mineral substance whatever, and a copy of this affidavit is published in Dr. Dchenck's pamphlet. Dr. S. pledges himself that these Mandrake Pills will cure any case of liver complaint, and abundant evidence of the fact is exhibited at his offices in Philadelphia, New-York, Boston, Baltimore and Washington, where the certificates of his patients, many of them persons of the highest respectability, are on file. Price 25 cents. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

Dr. J. H. Schenck will be professionally at his room, No. 32 Bond-st., New-York, every Tuesday, from 9 to 3 P. M., but his medicines can be had there at all times.

J. R. STAFFORD'S
IRON AND SULPHUR POWDERS
INVIGORATE THE BODY AND PURIFY THE BLOOD.

These powders are a chemical combination which is readily dissolved in water or in the contents of the stomach, where they at once unite with the digested food and enter with it into the formation of new blood. The iron by its magnetic attraction retains the vital or life giving forces in the circulation, strengthening the system generally; while the combined sulphur converts the foul and acrid secretions of the body and blood into gases, which are ejected through the pores of the body and skin, by the increased energy and strength of the circulation

DYSPEPTICS find immediate relief from the action of these powders upon the Liver and Spleen, and their secretions.

For SCROFULA, CANCERS, SALT RHEUM, ULCERS, SORES, or any eruption of the BODY or SKIN their curative effects are magical.

For TUMORS, SWELLINGS, DROPSIES, ABSCESSES, WENS, ETC., their dispersion and cure is certain, though of years standing.

They cure all forms of DEBILITY and WEAKNESS, as well as irregular secretions.

They convert PHLEGM and the acrid secretions of the THROAT, LUNGS or of CATARRH into gases, and give strength to the consumptive.

They cause a natural secretion of the saliva of the bowels, preventing habitual or chronic CONSTIPATION, and every form of PILES.

WORMS are created by and live only upon the impurities of the body; they cannot exist in a person whose system has been purified by these Powders.

☞ ¼ to ½ a Powder, daily, is sufficient for children. They neither Sicken nor Purge.? Being compounded with Sugar, they are very agreeable to the taste.

Full explanations of the above and other diseases, for which J. R. Stafford's Olive Tar is also used, are contained in a 16 page pamphlet, which I send anywhere, free, by mail. This pamphlet contains over a hundred testimonials, among which will be found the names of IMPORTANT CAUTION.

Whereas, J. R. STAFFORD'S IRON AND SULPHUR POWDERS are extensively counterfeited, and the counterfeits are such close imitations of the genuine outside envelope and inside directions that it is exceedingly difficult for the unitiated to tell which are the genuine and which are the counterfeit. TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER OF THE CURRENCY,
WASHINGTON, Feb. 27, 1864.

WHEREAS, BY SATISFACTORY EVIdence presented to the undersigned it has been made to appear that the Fourth National Bank of the City of New-York, in the County of New-York, and State of New-York, has been duly organized under and according to the requirements of the Act of Congress, entitled, "An Act to provide a national currency, secured by a pledge of United States stocks, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved Feb. 25, 1863, and has complied with all the provisions of said act required to be complied with before commencing the business of banking.

Now, therefore, I, HUGH McCULLOCH, Comptroller of the Currency, do hereby certify that the Fourth National Bank of the City of New-York, County of New-York, and State of New-York, is authorized to commence the business of banking under the said aforesaid.

In testimony whereof, witness my hand and seal of office this 27th day of February, 1864.

(L. S.) (Signed,) HUGH McCULLOCH,
Comptroller of the Currency.

A SPECIAL MEETING OF THE STOCKholders of the CLEVELAND AND PITTSBURGH RAILROAD COMPANY will be held at the office of said company in Cleveland, on the 4th day of May, 1864, at 10 o'clock A. M., to vote upon the increase to the capital stock of said company, for the purpose of allowing the bonds of said company to be converted into stock.

The transfer books will be closed on the 23d day of April, and open on the 5th day of May.

By order of the Board of Directors.

TEN-FORTY GOVERNMENT LOAN.
UNITED STATES TREASURY.

NEW-YORK, April 4, 1864.

By direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, I hereby give notice that I am prepared to receive subscriptions on account of United States Bonds authorized by the act of March 3, 1864, bearing date March 1, 1864, redeemable at the pleasure of the Government after ten years, and payable forty years from date, bearing interest at five per centum a year, payable on bonds not over $100 annually and on all other bonds semi-annually, in coin.

Subscribers will receive either registered or coupon bonds, as they may prefer.

Registered bonds will be issued of the denominations of fifty dollars, ($50,) one hundred dollars, ($100,) five hundred dollars, ($500,) one thousand dollars, ($1,000,) five thousand dollars, ($5,000,) and ten thousand dollars, ($10,000,) and coupon bonds of the denominations of fifty dollars, ($50,) one hundred dollars, ($100,) five hundred dollars, ($500,) and one thousand dollars, ($1,000.)

Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their bonds draw interest from March 1 or September 1, as the case may be, by paying the accrued interest in coin, (or United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium,) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit.

Upon the receipt of subscriptions, I will issue my certificate of deposit therefor in duplicate, the original of which will be forwarded by the subscriber to the Secretary of the Treasury, Washington, with a letter stating the kind, (registered or coupon,) and the denominations of bonds required.

Upon the receipt of the original certificates at the Treasury Department, the bonds subscribed for will be transmitted to the subscribers respectively.

A commission of one-eighth of one per cent. will be allowed to those subscribing for others or resale. The delivery of these bonds have commenced, and will be continued promptly.

Assistant Treasurer, U. S.

ALBANY AND SUSQUEHANNAH RAILROAD COMPANY
(140 miles long)
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS FOR $1,000,000.
FOR SALE BY MARIE & KANZ, NO. 27 WILLIAM-STREET, NEW-YORK.

The undersigned now offer for sale $300,000 of the First Mortgage 7 per Cent. Bonds of the Albany and Susquehannah Railroad Company, (Exp. P. Prentice, President,) redeemable in New-York July 1, 1888, and convertible into stock at par within ten years.

The Bonds are in sums of $1,000 each, coupons payable Jan. 1 and July 1, in New-York City. They are executed to Daniel Drew and Alfred Van Santvoord, Trustees, and secured by a mortgage which "covers the whole of the said road, including the right of way, necessary real estate, superstructure, franchises and appurtenances belonging to, or to belong to the company; and is the first and a preferred lien thereon, except that one other mortgage, directed by a special act of the Legislature of the State of New-York to be executed to the City of Albany, to secure the payment of the principal and interest of $1,000,000 of bonds, to be issued by the said city as a loan in aid of the said road, which two mortgages are by the terms of the said act entitled to an equality of lien."

The length of road is 140 miles, entirely within the State of New-York, extending from the City of Albany to Binghamton on the Erie Railway, through a rich and productive region, forming valuable connections with other railroads at its two termini, and opening another avenue from the coal regions.

The first division of thirty-five miles from Albany to Schoharie has recently been opened for business; that portion from Schoharie to Oneonta, Otsego County, forty-five miles, has been let, and is now in progress; the balance is nearly ready for letting, and proposals are now advertised for grading and bridging fifty miles beyond Oneonta.

The cost of the first division, including rolling stock, is about $1,000,000, in addition to which $300,000 have been expended on the balance of the line; total expended to Jan. 1, 1864, $1,345,496.

The means of the company to complete the road, including what is already expended, are $2,000,000, individual and town subscriptions to the stock, of which $1,140,000 have been already paid in; $1,000,000 First Mortgage Bonds; $1,000,000 Albany City Loan, and $500,000 appropriated by the State of New-York, and payable one-half when the road is completed to Cobbleskill, forty miles; the balance when completed eighty miles—to Oneonta; total, $4,500,000. Estimated cost of the road when completed, $4,500,000, or about $32,000 per mile. The joint mortgages to secure the bonds issued by the company, and the bonds to be issued by the City of Albany, together $2,000,000, constitute a total lien of $14,300 per mile.

MORSE & CO.,

APRIL 5, 1864.

NEW-YORK, April 4, 1864.

I visited this Mine in the month of December, 1863, accompanied by Guido Kustel, the most distinguished Metallurgist and Mining Engineer on the Pacific coast, for many years the Manager of the Ophir Works, and author of a valuable treatise on the "Processes of Silver and Gold Extraction," recently published in California. My opinion of the value and quality of this Mine is based on information derived from this gentleman, and on my own observations a the Mine.

The Mine situated in Arizona, about three miles north of the northern boundary line of Sonora, and five miles distant from the celebrated Mowry Silver Mines; it is accessible at all seasons of the year, either by the way of Los Angelos, Libertad, or Guaymas. But little work has been done in developing the mine; enough, however, to discover the width and extent of the lode and determine the quality and value of the ores.

Where the shaft is sunk the vein is from four to six feet wide between lime-rock and garnet, running east and west, and exhibits galena or sulphuret of lead, carbonate of lead, zinc-blend and copper-pyrites; the richest is the sulphuret of lead, assaying one hundred and fifty-five dollars per ton; the vein has been prospected about half a mile. Mr. Kustel, in a letter addressed to the San Francisco owners, says: "The San Antonio lode appears, where the shaft is sunk, a good wide vein of ore, easy to reduce by fire, and will pay on an average, according to the proportions of the different metals, from seventy to ninety dollars per ton."

I believe there is an abundant supply of this ore, and that by an expenditure of a comparatively small sum of money, the mine can be put in a condition to produce 40 tons per day; if this ore averages only $80 per ton, the gross product of the mine would exceed $3,000 per day; the entire cost of mining and reducing a ton of this ore will not exceed twenty dollars.

On the premises, about 200 yards from San Antonio lode, in a N. E. direction, there is a very rich copper lode, six feet wide; the ores which we obtained from this lode, considered a fair average, assayed 80 ⅌ cent of copper and $76 in silver. Miners can be obtained in any number in the immediate vicinity, at about $10 ⅌ month.

The reduction works of the mine are three miles distant from the mine, consisting of a small engine and two furnaces. There is an abundance of wood and water for all purposes on the property.

I consider the San Antonio as a very valuable Silver Mine, If worked with skill and energy, it will produce most satisfactory results.

No. 44 EXCHANGE-PLACE,
NEW-YORK, April 13, 1864.

In calling the attention of our friends and correspondents to the Pacific Quicksilver Mining Company, we beg to add the following statement, which is furnished to us from reliable sources.

The property of the Pacific Quicksilver Mining Company comprises the Cinnabar Claims of twenty small companies consolidated. These claims thus united, cover over three continuous miles in length of the Mammoth Ledge, in Napa County, California, about seventy miles northeast of San Francisco. The richness of the Cinnabar is proved by the assay of Prof. Kent, of the United States Assay Office; a specimen assayed by him yielded 69 6-10 per cent. of quicksilver. The quicksilver mines of the world are limited, the principal supply thus far having been drawn from those of Almaden, in Spain, Idria, in Austria, and the New Almaden mines, in California. The mines of the Pacific Quicksilver Mining Company give promise of richness equal to the best of these, and worked with ample capital, of equal success. The want of capital has alone prevented their earlier development.

Of the great and increasing demand for Quicksilver, it is quite unnecessary to speak; nor of the large returns made by the few known mines of Cinnabar.

Every new mine, of gold or silver, creates an increased demand; and the small cost of this great property, free from incumbrance, on the terms offered, viz, only $2,000,000, for the property, with $400,000 in cash on hand, places it in a most favorable position.

A number of specimens taken by John T. Howard, Esq., of Brooklyn, from various parts of the ledge, can be seen at our office.

Very respectfully,
STIMSON, FRONK & CO.

MEDICAL.

AFFLICTED RESTORED!

Ignorance Exposed! Fallacies Unmasked!—Highly important to both sexes, married or single, in health or disease. Dr. LARKIN'S Paris, London and New-York Medical Adviser and Marriage Guide, (80th edition, 400 pages, nearly 100 anatomical illustrations cloth,) upon nervous debility, affections of the bladder and kidneys, sexual diseases and their consequences. The author's unequalled Parisian and London treatment, &c. All should purchase this original work of the publisher, B. WARNER, No. 1 Vesey-st., Astor House, New-York, for $1, or consult the DOCTOR, No. 173 Broadway, (up stairs,) New-York, from 10 A. M. to 5 P. M.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by DR. WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and at less expense than any other can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from Impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks, permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st. Call, send, or write.

$1,000 FORFEITED AND NO CHARGE UNLESS CURED.—Dr. Hunter's Red Drop cures venereal diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures in new cases in less than six hours; cures without the dreadful consequent effects of mercury; but possesses the peculiarly valuable property of annihilating the rank and poisonous taint that the blood is sure to absorb unless this remedy is used. This is what he claims for it; and what no other will accomplish. Its value in this respect has become so well known that scientific men, in every department of medical knowledge, begin to appreciate it; for hardly a week passes that he is not consulted by druggists, chemists and physicians in regard to some pitiful patient who has exhausted the whole field of the faculty, and still the disease will appear. It is $1 a vial, and cannot be obtained genuine anywhere but at the old office, No. 3 Division-st., New-York City, since 1833. Ladies' parlor rooms and a private entrance. A ten cent bill will secure the Monitor of Health by return mail.

FAIRS.

MARYLAND STATE FAIR FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE
UNITED STATES SANITARY AND CHRISTIAN COMMISSIONS.

The Maryland State Fair will be opened with appropriate ceremonies, at the Maryland Institute, in the City of Baltimore, on MONDAY, 18th of April, at 6½ P. M., a day ever memorable for the first assault and maltreatment of the soldiers of the sister State of Pennsylvania marching over the common highway of the Republic, to the defence of the Capital of our common country, and the prelude to the atrocities committed in our streets against the patriot sons of Massachusetts on the 19th.

Although her soil has been seared and furrowed by the thread of rebel armies, the daughters of Maryland will not yield to those of any State in placing upon the altar of their beloved country a tribute to the brave defenders of their homes and firesides. Although they may not reach the brilliant results attained in the favored cities of the East and West, valued in money, they will not concede to any a greater degree of devotion to the sublime labor of love exhibited by the agents of the Sanitary Commission, and its no less zealous companion the Christian Commission, on every battle-field. Not only has the soldier, bleeding and dying in defence of the eternal right of man to self-government, been assisted and comforted, but the wind of adversity has been tempered to the misguided men who have taken up arms to effect its overthrow.

Contributions in money and goods are earnestly solicited from our merchants, manufacturers, mechanics, farmers and others, and can be addressed to any of the undersigned, or sent to the Hall of the Institute, on and after WEDNESDAY, April 13, where they will be received and taken charge of by the Hall Committee.

The various Express Companies will transport articles free of charge

The programme of the ceremonies of inauguration of the Fair will be announced hereafter.

Tickets of admission to the main hall of the Institute can be had at the following places, on and after WEDNESDAY, April 13, viz.:

Messrs. Cushing & Bailey's, No. 262 W. Baltimore-st.
Messrs. Canfield, Bros. & Co.'s, corner Baltimore and Charles-st.
Mr. James S. Waters, No. 168 W. Baltimore-st.
Messrs. Chas. Reese & Co., corner Madison and Eutaw sts.
Messrs. Armstrong & Berry, No. 156 W. Baltimore-street, and at the Ticket Office of the Institute, on and after 15th April, and at following prices:

Single Tickets—For the first evening $1.00
Single Tickets—After the first evening 25
Season Tickets—Good for the entire week of the Fair, after the first evening 1.00
Season Tickets—Issued to ladies having charge of tables, &c., and their designated assistants only, and good for the entire week, including the first evening 1.00

No season tickets are transferable, or allowed to be used except by those to whom issued. Ladies having charge of tables, &c., will please hand in, as soon as practicable, at the store of Messrs. Cushings & Bailey, and addressed to the "Joint Executive Committee," a list of names and the number of tickets desired by them, as above.

There will be an exhibition of rare and valuable Paintings in the Rooms of the School of Design of the Institute, for which season tickets will be issued at the above places for 50 cents; single tickets 25 cents. Other exhibitions, of Tableaux, &c., will be announced, as arrangements are perfected.

Arrangements have been made with the various rail road companies and steamboat lines running into the City, by which tickets will be issued (with admission coupons attached) at greatly reduced rates of fare.

The Public School Commissioners, have announced a holiday to the scholars for the afternoons of Thursday and Friday, April 21 and 22.

Articles purchased will not be removed until after the first evening of the Fair; by this feature an opportunity will be offered to all to see the rare and beautiful articles as first arranged.

A daily newspaper will be published and sold at the Fair.

Meals can be obtained at all hours at the Lunch Rooms, and also at the "New-England Kitchen," which is expected to be one of the most interesting features of the Fair.

The Music for the Fair will be under the direction of Professor Deems.

The Fair will be opened at 10 o'clock on each morning; the Drum Corps will beat the "tattoo" at 10½ P. M.—"taps" at 11, when it is expected that the Rooms will be immediately vacated.

METROPOLITAN FAIR.

Wishing to afford the opportunity of visiting the Fair to as many persons as possible, the managers have decided that the rate of admission on FRIDAY and SATURDAY shall be 25 cents. In order to accommodate the crowd that will be present, it is requested and expected that season tickets shall not be used on those days. The holders of season tickets having already obtained admission for a longer time than was originally promised, the managers hope that no one will attempt to evade the above request. The price of admission previous to Friday will be 50 cents. The Public Schools are admitted this week, but they leave the buildings before the hour of opening to the public. Auction sales of goods will be held every evening, at the 14th-st. buildings, and on Friday and Saturday, at the Union-square buildings.

MONDAY, April 18—P. M.

The Weekly Averages of the old Banks of the City of New-York on Saturday, April 16, 1864, present in the aggregate the following changes from the previous exhibit of April 9:

Decrease in Loans	$5,329,493
Increase in Specie	763,383
Decrease in Circulation	24,861
Decrease in Undrawn Deposits	2,162,230

Including the Clearing-house operations of the week, which show the inter-exchanges between the Banks, and including also the Sub-Treasury balance at the close of the week, the following is the general comparison with the previous exhibit, and also with the movement this time last season:

	April 16, 1863.	April 16, 1864.	April 9, 1864.
Capital	$69,128,000	$69,722,508	$69,722,508
Loans	169,632,822	198,703,699	204,033,192
Specie	36,761,696	21,687,670	20,924,287
Circulation	8,639,558	5,779,650	5,804,511
Gross Deposits	207,345,361	276,249,729	280,238,538
Exchanged	42,236,160	107,898,939	109,725,518
Undrawn	164,109,201	168,350,790	170,513,020
In Sub-Treasury	7,988,362	38,499,316	37,639,224

The Bank statement reflects the beginning of a sharp curtailment of Loans and Discounts—of Loans on Stock collateral especially. The Deposit line is also down two millions, while the Specie average runs upon the free disbursements from the Treasury. The average is no doubt a rising one at Bank, as the Gold which left the Treasury on Friday and Saturday but partially tells upon the present statement.

There is an extraordinary state of things in the Money Market, to-day. The Associated Banks in the Clearing House appear to have brought themselves into a complete snarl by their action at the close of February, forbidding further deposits of the United States Currency with the Treasury Office on 5 per cent. interest, thirty days after ten days' notice. Hitherto the Certificates of such deposits had been used as a clearing or selling medium between each other, and the practice afforded a sure guaranty, at all times, against any difficulty in obtaining Greenbacks at the Treasury, in case of a financial storm, such as we are witnessing to-day, by reason of the negotiations of the Treasury, or any other sudden cause of pressure. The arrangement was doubly convenient to the Associated Banks. It saved the risk of holding their surplus Legal Tender Money of every description, and it insured its prompt return by Mr. CISCO, the Assistant Treasurer, with 5 per cent. interest, on a few days' notice. Included in such Legal Tender Money, to and from the Government was supposed to be the Notes of Circulation of the new National Banks. These had not then appeared in the market, nor were they likely to appear in sufficient amount to create the slightest distinction from Greenbacks for six months or more to come. But the Clearing-house managers are against the National Banking system. They were determined to put its Notes down—if they could—and because of their recognition at the Treasury, they resolved to have nothing more to do with Treasury Certificates of Deposit. The few that were still out for Clearing-house use have since been collected, not so much, perhaps, from choice as from the necessity of the prevailing scarcity of Greenbacks.

The alternative of Treasury 5 ℔ cent. Certificates of Deposit has made a very simple 5 ℔ cent. token, calling for nothing in the shape of Greenbacks until June next, when the first issue of Two Years Treasury Notes will pay half a year's interest. This token passes daily from the debtor to the creditor Bank at the Clearing-house, the Loan Committee of the Assosiation being scarce of the securities upon which it is based. The creditor Bank, however incommoded with such tokens bearing 5 ℔ cent., while money in the open market is worth from 7 to 14 ℔ cent., cannot demand a surrender of the securities; and now that the Government, by the sale of the new 10-40 Loan, the sale of Exchange on London, and the disposition of part of its large Gold balances, all for Greenbacks, is testing the redundancy of its currency at this great money centre of the land, the New-York Associated Banks are brought to a dead lock. The Stock Exchange is in a panic, the like of which has not been witnessed since 1857. Gold is offered 1½@2 ℔ cent. lower for Greenbacks than it sold for Certified Checks upon the Banks. Government Bills on London are a drug at the going rates, because required to be paid for in Greenbacks, and confusion generally reigns through Wall and William streets. The suspension of Specie payments on Oct. 13, 1857, was scarcely equal, in the intensity, to the virtual suspension of Greenback payments on April 18, 1864! "Old Greenback," as the Secretary of the Treasury is sometimes called, will probably be surprised to learn to-morrow that his visit of last week to look after his "redundant" currency in this market has produced such momentous consequences. His business was simply to order the prepayment of his May interest in Gold, and to sell or otherwise dispose of, as the recent Act of Congress directs, a few extra millions of Exchange and Gold. The demand for these was said to be urgent, the superabundance of Greenbacks said to be ruinous. Without pretending to traverse either branch of this important information, he set about his work of relief in the quickest way possible, not meaning or pretending to put forth the full strength of the Treasury at once. After a few days' experience the plethora of Greenbacks appears really to have disappeared. They were not plenty in Wall-street on Saturday. They were less so to-day.

The opening scenes of panic on the Stock Exchange this morning were aggravated, in the confusion and consternation which they produced, by the announcement at the close of the First Board that Messrs. MORSE & Co., of late prominent Bulls in the Railway and Mining speculation, had suspended payment. The event was not altogether unexpected, but as it was made known at the beginning of business, the supposition was indulged that the firm would go through another day. Another young house of the regular Exchange Board gave way, and several active members of the Public Board were unable to respond to their contracts. Numerous other reports of failure were at one moment current on the Street, but beyond unusual difficulties in getting checks certified at Bank, and making up Bank accounts, we believe that most of these are, at least, premature. As to the condition of the Railway and other Share markets, which fell from five to twenty-five per cent. from Saturday's sales, we can only point to the official list of sales at all the Boards.

At 4 o'clock there was appearance of substantial reaction, but some improvement on part of the list. The following figures are as near as we could get the rates, as compared with Saturday, same hour. The Gold market was neglected at both sessions of the Stock Exchange. On the Street, the price was 168½@170 ℔ cent., a material difference being made in favor of Greenback payments in place of Certified Bank Checks.
